TONS OF BOMBS BLAST BRITAIN

MEXICAN ELECTION RIOTS RESPONSIBLE HEAVY LOSS LIFE

BETWEEN 50 AND 100 DEAD; WIRESPREAD IRREGULARITIES REPORTED

MEXICO CITY, July 8.—(AP)—Political quarters estimated a death toll of "more than 100" as a result of violent disorders in Mexico's presidential elections yesterday, when reports of the dead and injured continued to mount today.

Police had counted 19 dead and 251 injured in Mexico City alone.

Reports from five cities — the first received—showed 15 additional deaths. Puebla reported 5, Iguala and Coatepre, 4 each, and Monterey and Guadalajara, 1 each.

Further disorders are feared when the returns are canvassed Thursday. The official result will not be announced by congress until September.

Meanwhile both General Manueal Avila Camacho, Administration candidate, and his chief rival, General Juan Andreu Almazan, were claiming victory.

The condition of two American students injured by shots was slightly better late today. Leonard Durso, 18, of Union City, N. J., gravely wounded by a rifle bullet, was reported improved, and Edward J. McAllen, Jr., of Frannie, Wyoming, suffering from a pistol wound in the stomach, was given a chance for recovery.

The government made no comment about the outcome of the election, but deplored "bloody incidents," commented significantly on reports of election law violations and said they would be punished.

Complaints poured in from all over the nation that Almazan's supporters had been denied the right to vote. Fear was expressed in some quarters that the final tabulation of ballots might be accompanied by further disorders.

Government officials expressed confidence, however, there would be no further trouble.

There were no official estimates on the number of casualties. General Almazan said his reports indicated that "100 or more" lives had been lost; other estimates placed the figure in the region of 50.

Mexico City itself was the scene of the worst rioting.

Violent disorders broke out before the polls opened at 9 a.m.

BRITISH CLAIM HOLD UPPER HAND OVER AIR RAIDING INVADERS

GERMANS CONTINUE DAILY AIR RAIDS OVER VARIOUS PARTS OF ENGLAND

By The Associated Press

LONDON, July 8.—Britain claimed the upper hand over nazi air raiders today and declared that her fliers were matching blow for blow as waves of German planes still poured over England.

Several persons were believed killed and some damage was caused in towns of northeast, southeast and southwest England as the Germans continued the air forays from which the British have had but one day of respite since Jan. 18.

But the air ministry said Royal Air Force planes, in daylight raids on Germany yesterday, shot down a Messerschmitt fighter in flames and wrecked a big four-engined airplane on the ground.

German assertions of British losses in the air battle over the British channel yesterday were scoffed at in authoritative circles as "just another case of nazi multiplication by 10."

(The nazi high command reported 10 British Spitfires shot down over the channel as part of 14 British air losses to three for Germany yesterday.)

"Against a German loss of three fighters and a bomber, British losses were, in fact, one only—the second fighter machine lost in the defense of Britain since the war began," these sources retorted.

The "bag" of German planes attacking the British isles, they added, is "112 machines certain" and possibly 25 others damaged so badly they are believed never to have reached home.

To this, apparently, was added another bomber today.

Many Bombs Dropped

About 100 incendiary and 12 explosive bombs were dropped in the early morning raid on a northeast town in which several persons were injured.

The London Times quoted an air ministry estimate of 40 nazi planes downed in the last two weeks (the raiders have failed to appear only one day out of the last 20) and 2,500 destroyed by British forces since the war began.

British aerial counter-thrusts over the week-end struck at nazi shipyards in Bremen and Kiel, airdromes in France and Belgium, an armament depot in Germany,

MEXICAN STUDENTS CLASH WITH UNIONISTS

The students were supporters of General Juan Andreu Almazan, independent candidate for president of Mexico, while most unionists favored the administration candidate, General Manuel Alvia Camacho.

PRESIDENT ALIGNED WITH SECRETARY HULL ON MONROE DOCTRINE

DECLARATIONS FROM EUROPE AND ASIA DECLARED DOCTRINE IN NAME ONLY.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt was aligned today with Secretary of State Hull in contending that there is a difference between "Monroe Doctrines under the name only" and the "true Monroe Doctrine as we know it and have it."

Following German and Japanese discussion of "a Monroe Doctrine for Europe" and "a Monroe Doctrine for Asia," Stephen Early, white house secretary, said at Hyde Park yesterday:

"There hasn't been any sign or evidence of a real or true Monroe Doctrine in other hemispheres than our own yet."

Secretary Hull had declared on Friday that the Monroe Doctrine does not resemble policies in other areas which, he said, though alleged to be similar, "would in reality seem to be only the pretext for the carrying of conquest by the sword."

The president suggested Saturday night European and Asiatic nations—each as a group—use the Monroe principle in disposing of the possessions of conquered nations.

He proposed that European,

NEW HEAVY BLOWS TO BRITAIN'S SEAPOWER CLAIMED BY GERMANS

HITLER AND MUSSOLINI BELIEVED PLANNING NEW BLITZKRIEG ON BRITAIN

By The Associated Press.

BERLIN, July 8.—Heavy blows to British seapower were reported by the high command today as, once again, Germany awaited the word of one man—Adolf Hitler—for the next phase of the European war.

The sinking of 21,500 tons of British shipping off the Spanish coast, including the 13,000-ton "armored British steamer San Fernando," was credited to U-boats.

Airplanes were said to have sunk two merchant ships and a transport and damaged others off the south coast of England.

"In England," the communique added, "the air force raided,

Garner Imitates Roosevelt About Convention Plan

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Vice President Garner is as silent as President Roosevelt concerning his democratic convention plans, although his managers have said they intend to let the Texan's name be put in nomination for thep residency.

Receiving visitors in his office durng the week-end, Garner lounged in a big overstuffed chair, tapped the ashes from his cigar, and declined all political comment.

"My wife is still putting up with me and I'm happy," he said. "What more could I ask?"

Fleet Commander In Capital; Will See President

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—A declaration that "halfway measures will not suffice" came from the senate naval committee today in a formal report recommending enactment of a $4,000,000,000 authorization bill to bring about a "two-ocean navy."

The report appeared soon after Admiral J. O. Richardson arrived unexpectedly at the navy department from Hawaii, where the bulk of the United States fleet now is stationed under his command.

"Our navy, including our naval air forces," the commander said, "must be ready and be stronger than potential aggressors.

WILLKIE ADVISORS SUGGEST HANDS-OFF EUROPE CAMPAIGN

CONGRESSMEN CLAIM THEY WILL URGE GOP NOMINEE TO BE NON-INTERVENTIONIST

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie's first visit to Washington as the Republican presidential nominee provided an opportunity today for several congressmen to urge that his campaign be shaped around a "hands-off-Europe" foreign policy.

Legislators who have been critical of the administration's program to aid the Allies said they would urge Willkie to take a firm "non-intervention" stand in his political speeches.

Among those who expressed the desire to confer with him were Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich), Nye (R-ND) and Thomas (R-Idaho). All belong to the senate group which has insisted that the Roosevelt administration is endangering this country's peace in its efforts to help Great Britain.

Willkie planned to confer for the first time with Senator

JAPANESE ALLEGE U. S. MARINES HAVE HUMILIATED THEM

ACCUSATIONS ARE QUICKLY BRANDED AS LIE BY COMMANDER OF MARINES

SHANGHAI, July 8—(AP)—A Japanese accusation that United States marines had mistreated 15 Japanese plainclothes gendarmes arrested in the Shanghai defense area brough a prompt reply, "It's a lie," from Col. DeWitt Peck, marine commander in the area, today.

A Japanese army spokesman asserted the gendarmes were humiliated, clubbed and otherwise mistreated. This constituted a "grave insult to the Japanese army," he said, and "Japanese military authorities will file a strong protest with the American authorities over this case."

Col. Peck, denying the charges, also classed as "a lie" any report that marines had pointed loaded rifles at the gendarmes. He said the settlement police had informed the marines armed civilians were in the defense sector, and had asked for guards against possible terrorist outrages.

In every case where Japanese were arrested, he added, they were pointed out by settlement police, but were taken into custody and disarmed by the marines.

After the gendarmes had been arrested one was allowed to telephone his headquarters and two Japanese officers came to marine headquarters and discussed the case, Col. Peck explained. Then Major General Sabura Miura, commander of the Japanese gendarmes, called on Col. Peck and apologized, after which the gendarmes were released.

Col. Peck said he would decide whether to issue a formal statement after making a further study of the affair.

SHANGTAI, July 8—(AP)—A Japanese army spokesman accused United States marines in the Shanghai defense area today of a "grave insult to the Japanese army" in their treatment of 15 Japanese plainclothes gendarmes arrested in the zone yesterday.

The spokesman asserted the gendarmes were humiliated, clubbed and otherwise maltreated.

"Japanese military authorities," he said, "will file a strong protest

CONFIRMATION OF STIMSON FAVORED BY TEXAS SENATOR

MICHIGAN SENATOR SAYS NOMINEE HOLDS IDEA WOULD MEAN WAR

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) opposed senate confirmation of Henry L. Stimson to be secretary of war today because, he said, Stimson favored policies that "would bring this war to our country."

He took the floor after Senator Sheppard (D-Texas) had urged confirmation on the ground that Stimson's appointment was "notice to the world" of American unity.

Vandenberg criticized a speech made by Stimson, "just 24 hours before his appointment as secretary of war," urging that naval bases of the United States be made available to the British navy. Vandenberg said Stimson had been "unable to clear this up as far as I am concerned."

"This might invite, if not precipitate, our actual participation in the European war," Vandenberg added.

Following disposition of Stimson's nomination, the senate is to consider also the nomination of Frank Knox, another republican, to be secretary of the navy. Leaders were confident that approval would be forthcoming, after opponents had voiced their objections.

"The value and the significance of his (Stimson's) appointment by a democratic president in what may prove to be one of the most tragic periods in the annals of this nation," Sheppard asserted, "lies in the fact that it is notice to the world of the fundamental unity of the American people.

"Such notice could not have come at a more appropriate time.

ROOSEVELT URGED BE CANDIDATE BY NEW ENGLANDERS

FARLEY LEARNED PLANS OF PRESIDENT SUNDAY BUT IS KEEPING SILENT

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt was urged "to be a candidate or to consent to be drafted" today by two leaders of the Massachusetts delegation where James M. Farley has the bulk of his delegate strength to the Chicago Democratic convention.

A day after Farley's conference with Mr. Roosevelt when the Democratic national chairman was let in on the president's third-term intentions—but kept them strictly to himself—Rep. McCormack, chairman of the Massachusetts delegation, and William H. Burke, Jr., state Democratic chairman and a convention delegate, called at the White House and on the way out talked with reporters.

While Burke nodded agreement, McCormack said:

"We urged him just as strongly as we could to be a candidate or to consent to be drafted.

"I think it's absolutely indispensable that the president run. He is the outstanding man in government life in the world today and is the one man who is the leader of the forces, in government life, of enlightenment, progress and peace."

As to the solution of the third-term puzzle, when, and if, the Democratic convention might draft Mr. Roosevelt, the two Massachusetts leaders said they had no more information than the rest of the nation.

Of 34 Massachusetts delegates, Farley has 32 1-2 votes pledged

NATIONAL LEADER NAZI BUND OPPOSED REGISTRATION LAW

TEXAS SENATOR QUESTIONS WITNESS CLOSELY AT HEARING MONDAY

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Wilhelm Kunze, national leader of the German-American Bund, protested today against proposed legislation requiring registration of foreign-controlled organizations on the grounds it would force the Bund out of existence.

Although denying vigorously that his organization was controlled by Nazi Germany or that it had any secret purpose to overthrow the United States government, Kunze told a senate judiciary subcommittee that no one would dare be an officer of the Bund if the bill were enacted.

"It would be impossible to comply with it," he declared. "Not a single person would have the courage to be an officer of our organization because the slightest mistake in registration would subject him to heavy fines and long imprisonment."

Kunze, a New Yorker who took over the Bund leadership when Fritz Kuhn went to prison on conviction of mishandling Bund funds, appeared before the subcommittee at his own request to protest against the house-approved legislation.

Connally Grows Caustic.

Senator Connally (D-Texas) brought out that Kunze himself was now under $1,000 bond on a charge of sponsoring a "hatred" meeting on Independence Day at Camp Nordland, New Jersey.

ABSENTEE VOTING STARTS TODAY FOR TEXAS OFFICIALS

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR WILL MAKE MANY SPEECHES DURING THIS WEEK

By The Associated Press

Texans start voting today for or against a second term for Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel.

The overwhelming majority of the ballots won't be cast until primary election day—July 27. However, persons unable to go to the polls because of infirmities and those who will be away from their home communities July 27 can vote today through July 24.

The size of the absentee balloting will be watched closely for an indication as to how many persons will take part in the first democratic primary. Texas has more eligible voters this year than ever before but the war possibly has lessened interest in state politics.

In addition to the governor, citizens will vote on other state officers, United States senator, and local officers.

Gubernatorial candidates Ernest O. Thompson, Jerry Sadler and Harry Hines have scheduled about 25 speeches each this week. All are denouncing the general sales tax, which O'Daniel endorsed at

Italian Report Indicates Huge Success in Air

ROME, July 8.—(AP)—Week end operations by the Italian air force resulted in destruction of 17 British planes and damaging bombing raids on airports and troop columns on the African continent, the Fascist high command reported.

Three planes, a communique said were brought down out of squadron that attacked the port of Tobruk, Libya.

Of the 14 others six were wrecked in Italian bombing forays against British North African airdromes, and the others in attacks on airfields in Southeastern Egypt, near the Eritrean frontier.

Italian planes also were said to have started fires in the arsenal zone of Britain's Malta naval base.

(The British also reported bombing raids on Italian troops, transports, supply ships, oil tanks and hangars in week-end operations over the Mediterranean and against Sicily, Italian East Africa and Libya, and said French fleet units at Alexandria had been demobilized successfully.

NAZI AIR RAIDERS CONTINUE ATTACKS ON BRITISH POINTS

BELIEVED CIANO AND HITLER AGREED ON PROJECTED INVASION ENGLAND

By The Associated Press.

German air raiders dropped tons of incendiary, explosive and time-fuse bombs in widespread new attacks on Britain today, but still masked the scene of the projected invasion chosen by Adolf Hitler.

The raids, carrying on an almost incessant "strafing" of cities and military objectives that began on June 18, struck at coastal towns.

An official communique reported "some damage and a few casualties," but said two Nazi bombers were shot down by Royal Air force fighters.

So far Nazi bombing attacks on Britain have been widely scattered and reports from Berlin said even men usually in the know were unable to say when Hitler would give the word for the next phase of the war.

Hitler and Italian Foreign Minister Count Ciano conferred yesterday at a meeting which the authoritative fascist Editor Virginio Gayda said "will mean a new stretch on the combative, constructive road of new asociated nations."

One report from Rome said Hitler and Ciano, due to meet again Wednesday, discussed plans for an offensive against England, with Ireland as the first objective.

The British-German war for air supremacy went ahead at a deadly pace.

British fighters brought down at least four of the foe; at least five British were killed on the ground.

Germany's big broadcasting stations at Bremen and Hamburg went silent early today, which usually indicates British air raiders are nearby.

Planes identified as belonging to Britain's fallen ally — France — raided Gibraltar again Sunday and the Italian air force was active in Africa and over Malta.

The French announced that two of their air squadrons had been

ARMS PLANNED FOR SECOND MILLION OF MEN FOR US ARMY

MESSAGE SEEKING ADDITIONAL 5 BILLION FOR DEFENSE EXPECTED THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's coming request for a $5,000,000,000 defense fund was reported reliably today to authorize arms for a second million men.

The new program also contemplates additional facilities for making munitions, so that, in an emergency, full equipment for even larger land forces could be turned out in relatively short order.

A message setting forth the president's recommendations is expected to go to congress by the middle of the week.

Talk of the proposed fund, much the largest of its kind in pence-time, gave impetus to demands for another billion dollar a year increase in taxes to meet defense costs. Senator George (D-Ga) predicted the tax boost would be linked with the request for $4,000,000,000 for the army and $1,000,000,000 for the navy.

In regular and supplemental appropriations voted since the European war explosion in May, congress already has authorized complete arms and equipment for 500,000 soldiers, and reserves of "critical" weapons for an additional 500,000 men.

The newest preparedness move is expected to make ready for a second million men such arms as rifles, artillery, ammunition and tanks which could not be produced quickly in an emergency.

Some of these munitions presumably would be required even in peace-time should compulsory military training be undertaken. Such a program for training millions of men has been placed on the "must" list by Chairman Sheppard (D-Texas) of the senate military committee.

Cotton Acreage Under Cultivation Slightly Higher

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—The agriculture department estimated today that cotton in cultivation July 1 totaled 25,077,000 acres or 101.6 per cent of the area in cultivation a year ago, which was 24,683,000 acres.

Abandonment of cotton acreage between July 1 and time of picking has averaged 1.9 per cent in the last ten years, the department said, and the average abandonment applied to the estimated acreage in cultivation indicates 24,616,000 acres for harvest this year.

The acreage picked last year was 23,928,000, the smallest since 1899; the yield of lint cotton was 235.9 pounds to the acre. Total production was 11,812,281 bales of lint cotton and 5,230,000 tons of cottonseed.

The first official estimate of this year's indicated production will be issued August 8.

The acreage in cultivation July 1 and its percentage of that a year ago, in Texas, was: Texas 8,963,000 and 101.

NATION'S AIRPLANE MAKERS DECLARE CAN SUPPLY AS MANY PLANES AS ARMY-NAVY CAN USE

By DEVON FRANCIS
Associated Press Aviation Editor.

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—(AP)—Plans have been completed for the construction of a half dozen new aircraft plants in southern California, where some 60 per cent of the nation's heavy-tonnage and military planes are manufactured, but the men behind the ventures are waiting for a green light from Washington, D. C.

The airplane makers, suddenly faced with the monumental task of giving substance to our air rearmament program—now taking shape in the national capital—say they can turn out warplanes as fast as:

(1) The engine makers can supply engines.

(2) The army and navy can find use for the new equipment.

That is as close as the layman can come to getting an answer to the question inferred in President Roosevelt's message to congress on May 16—how and when can our air defense be buttressed with 50,000 airplanes?

I have emphasized before that American air rearmament in full stride will depend as much on the production of pilots to fly airplanes as it will on the production of the machines themselves. The government's training plans have crystallized in advance of its plane manufacturing plans, but the pilot quotas set by the army and the navy will not man 50,000 planes this year, or next year, or, probably, by the close of 1942.

Some leaders in the American aircraft industry have told me in the last few days that an actual production of 50,000 warplanes in the next twelve months, with the necessary plant construction and tool and die installation it would require, would be an impossible task, both in terms of the effort expended and the amount of money involved.

In New York last month Charles F. Kettering, vice president of General Motors Corp., outlined the rearmament problem in these words: "The only thing that's going to defeat the American armament program is that the American people don't understand exactly what you have to do to make a lot of something. How long it takes for the whole make-ready isn't understood."

The whole rearmament picture, and particularly that portion of it devoted to air rearmament, is capsuled by what might be termed an "iffy" situation. One standout statement has been issued in the last few weeks. Glenn L. Martin, the Baltimore airplane maker, says we can do in one year of air rearmament what Germany has done each three years since 1933.

England's Defense Against Coming Nazi Air Blitzkrieg Depends Upon Ability Withstand Slaughter People

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Whether England can ward off the impending nazi air-attack in connection with the projected invasion will depend in no small degree on how much civilian slaughter can be endured without cracking the morale of its military defenders.

It's one thing for soldiers to face death for themselves, and quite another to see their women and children blown to pieces.

Mass-bombing over Britain is bound to result in terrible civilian casualties. The bulk of its population lives in the congested industrial areas. Military objectives and civilians are so intermingled that there is no way of bombing one and not the other.

France's collapse owned much to the killing of women and children, and the millions of terrified, starving refugees who jammed the battlefields and highways.

British War Minister Eden gave warning the other day when he admonished the civilian population to stay where they were when the bombs began to rain, and not rush into the highways and byways.

It's a terrific strain to remain glued to a spot under heavy bombing—actually much more difficult than being in action against the enemy. Old and young alike are determined to see it through under the leadership of Premier Churchill, who has told them:

"I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat. x x x Without victory there is no survival."

Britain is beginning to move women and children out of the country.

I understand that large numbers probably will be sent to Ireland—a much quicker and easier operation than crossing the Atlantic.

England's smallness, while increasing the danger to its big population from bombing, has one advantage—it should be easier to defend against an air attack. Employment of German planes in masses certainly will result in large numbers of them being shot down.

Britain has another natural advantage. Its manufacturing as as whole isn't massed in cities but is spread out over great areas. There are many small factories.

Some of her most modern munitions works are under ground. Much of the air force hangars are half under ground, so that there is much less chance of planes being damaged unless there is a direct hit on the hangar.

WORKING FOR AMERICA

"French workmen," a commentor reminds us, "who would not work more than 40 hours a week for themselves and for their country, may now work 60 hours a week for their enemies."

There is much anxiety in the United States today lest the gains made by labor in shorter hours and better hourly wages be lost in the race for preparedness. There may be more than one way of regarding those gains, and of protecting them.

When there is a serious crisis in a family every member turns to with all his time, strength and ability. Wide-eyed children do their chores without squabbling and quietly ask if there is something more than can do. Quiet adults snatch what sleep is necessary to conserve their strength, but stay long hours on the job of nursing the sick, feeding the family, keeping the home fires burning, and all the rest. When the trouble is over, normal living is resumed. There is leisure again for all, and a chance to pursue individual interests without interference from other members of the family.

It might be that readiness to produce more by working more would be to labor's own interest in the long run, provided, of course, that exploitation was not permitted and that profiteering by employers was banned as effectively as soldiering by workers. Surrendered leisure would be a modest price to pay for preserved democracy.

WHILE ENGLAND RESISTS

"What comes next?" writes Freda Kirchway, editor of The Nation. "Let us hope that it will not be panic and a tidal wave of despair. The greatest disaster in the world would be not the military defeat of France or even of France and Britain, but the acceptance by the United States of the myth that Nazi Germany is invincible.

"The terrifying union of organization and armed might with implacable aggression may overwhelm the unready European democracies. But it need not and must not overwhelm us. For we have their mistakes to warn and guide us. The record of the past four years, so packed with bitter wisdom, is open before us.

"The British Empire has not been defeated. It is fighting. It is strong in resources and men; its fleets still dominate the oceans.

"The greatest weakness of British defense is the shortage of trained manpower and planes. The United States should pour into Britain the 'redoubled' aid promised by President Roosevelt to France in its last fighting hours.

"The United States should look upon England as an American fortress standing off the coast of Nazi Europe, a bastion between our shores and the most powerful aggressor the world has known. As long as England resists, we have armed protection and time to prepare to protect ourselves. In England and the British Empire survive, precariously, the last standards outside the New World to which free men can cling."

There seems to be an argument developing, as to whether in bawling out Hitler we scare him off or just make him madder.

Would your choice be still for me?"

To the aging G.

"Suppose when married twenty
Years there came a second chance,
Would you think that was plenty
Or continue our romance?

Now it bothered Mr. Grover
To decide on a reply
And he wished to think it over
For he didn't want to lie.

So the aging Mr. Grover
Told the aging Mrs. G.:
"If I ever do it over
Just as big a fool I'll be."

Now the aging Mrs. Grover

DAWSON ONION CROP

Production of onions has become a considerable agricultural pursuit with hundreds of acres of land utilized in the Dawson area.

This product has returned more revenue per acre than cotton in recent years. The acreage has increased annually. Sheds have been provided to care for the industry. Truck and train transportation is used for marketing. Many are employed in harvesting. The price is generally good.

One business has been added with the opening of a cafe to cater to the onion harvest hands. The proprietor says he will continue through the fall months.

Revenues from the onion crop come when farm income is low and is a boon to merchants and citizens. This income supplements that received in grain sales early in the summer.

The more crops harvested in Navarro county, the better-rounded agricultural program will result. This added income, too, will tide over many producers when cotton is short or the price is low and unstable. A failure in a one-crop rural community is disastrous and depressing, but with diversified crops, a community insurance against hard times results unless tornadoes destroy all growing things. More and better crops are needed.

ROANE 4-H LEADERSHIP

Roane 4-H boys club experiments deserve more than passing notice.

These boys will be the farmers and citizens of tomorrow.

They will experiment with flax, castor beans, and soy beans under the vocational guidance of the county agents's office. The results will be shown as chemurgic exhibits at the Fair Sept 24-28. Profitable production of crops not generally regarded as suitable for this area may result. Sweet potato processing is also a project of this club.

Navarro county has many types of soil. With the agricultural situation still unsettled, more efforts are being made to increase the number of crops. Cotton has robbed the soil of much of its fertility. Other crops, even if not soil-builders, will take ingredients not depleted by cotton, and will give the depleted portions time for rebuilding.

Crops that furnish profitable use of unproductive land may be discovered for this section.

And such projects and undertakings tend to develop an intelligent and progressive leadership among those in the farming business that may go a long way in shaping and improving the role of agriculture in the future.

By that French carving policy, applied here, Hitler would take the Atlantic states and Japan the Pacific states.

As for French-British relations, national partners, like individuals, may quarrel either from too much luck or too much misery.

Approximately 135 youths attended from Brownsboro, Hillsboro, Mexia, Corsicana, Groesbeck, Teague and Kerens. Glynell Reed, from our resident center was forum chairman in charge of all picnic arrangements. Swimming and outdoor recreation were enjoyed before the buffet-style picnic supper was served. After our meal a brief business session followed during which Miss Reed announced plans for the summer term of the Youth Forum. ROSS HARDIN SPOKE FRIDAY CORSICANA INTEREST CANDIDACY

Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill, Limestone county candidate for railroad commissioner of Texas, spoke in the interest of his candidacy here Friday afternoon. He reviewed his record as a member of the Texas Legislature and declared if elected he would represent the "great masses of the people and not the interests." He outlined the duties of the railroad commission in supervising the oil and gas industry, all transportation, etc.

He said one issue is permits to bus lines and declared one man had received a permit without going through the proper and legal channels to secure bus permits by filing proper insurance papers, applications, and other matters. He charged that well allowables are allowed for wells that have not produced any oil for ten years.

If a person has business before the railroad commission after he is a member, Hardin declared, it will not be necessary to hire certain Austin lawyers to procure audiences or what a person is entitled to. He charged that some lawyers practicing "influence" before the commission have the finest offices and homes in the capital city. He charged the finely-appointed offices had the most expensive furniture and comforts, but there are no law books in them. He charged their homes were finer than the "mansion" of Texas.

Hardin asserted he was the only office-holder to have been in office six years who had not moved to town to be a "big" boy. He said he favored a reduction in the gas rates, and reviewed his fight in and out of the Legislature for the old age pensions.

A total of 1,000 farm laborers also were placed in the fields during June.

There were 530 claims for unemployment compensation filed.

MEXICAN

By midday battles were raging in a half-dozen different sections of the city, with police and soldiers resorting to firearms in an attempt to end the fighting.

Avenida Juarez in the heart of downtown Mexico City was the scene of pitched battles. Another fierce engagement took place directly before the Palacio De Bellas Artes. Scores were downed by fire from pistols, rifles and machine-guns in the latter encounter.

Tear gas bombs and hand grenades also were used in some places.

Numerous voting places were wrecked or burned.

In some districts Almazan supporters, charging they had been denied the right to vote, were reported to have set up separate polling places.

Throughout the early afternoon the crackle of gunfire could be heard in Mexico City. In the early evening a driving rain sent the crowds scurrying for shelter.

President Lazara Cardenas himself was unable to vote. He waited for a half hour before a closed polling place and finally departed before it could be opened on his orders.

Mexicans Take Their Politics Seriously

MEXICO CITY, July 8.—(AP)—The violent seriousness with which Mexicans take their politics was evidenced today by a casualty list of at least 30 persons killed and 150 wounded in armed clashes which marked yesterday's balloting here.

This correspondent, who toured the capital during the voting, eyewitnessed a series of spirited battles.

Rifle and pistol fire was heard constantly throughout the capital, accompanied by the frequent boom of tear-gas bombs and the rattle of machine-guns.

Truck-loads of heavily armed troops and police, cavalry and mounted police patrolled streets.

In a pouring rain, the massed ranks of troops and police managed to turn the crowd back with tear-gas bombs, crushing blows with the butts of their guns, slashing strokes of fixed bayonets and shots fired over the heads and at the feet of the yelling throng.

One of the most spectacular clashes took place late in the evening between federal troops and police and a cheering crowd of 6,000 partisans of General Juan Andreu Almazan who attempted to break through the government cordons to march on the presidential palace.

The casualty list was small, only one person shot and several badly bruised, but the battle had all the other elements of drama.

Without warning, death struck three students earlier in the day when unknown assailants swept their Ford roadster with a machin-gun just before this correspondent arrived.

The little car, plastered with Almazan stickers, was almost cut to pieces by the hail of fire.

On the way to an interview with General Almazan's strongly fortified campaign headquarters, this correspondent drove into the middle of a pitched battle.

About twenty policemen on rooftops and in the street had cornered four assailants in what appeared to be an abandoned building after they had fired into one of the Almazan voting booths.

The cornered gunmen, after extensive exchange shots, attempted to flee across the roof-tops. The police on the building across the street brought three of them down like clay pigeons. The fourth was still fighting a sniping battle when this correspondent departed.

It was a common sight throughout the day to see soldiers firing at pistol-shooting factions in the capital's principal avenues.

A pitched battle was staged both in Avenida Juarez and Paseo De La Reforma, two of the capital's most important thoroughfares, with a substantial toll of dead and wounded.

The sound of firing and bursting tear-gas bombs was heard constantly in the offices of the Associated Press. Javier Lenero, office boy of the Associated Press, was shot in the left arm, but not seriously wounded, while carrying messages to the cable office.

Quiet in Border Town

PRESIDIO, Texas, July 8.—(AP)—Yesterday's Mexican presidential election at Ojinaga, frontier town across the border from Presidio in Texas' far southwest, was the quietest in many years.

Border traffic was suspended over the week-end, but today Presidio resident failed to learn of any untoward incidents.

County League

Allowing only one hit in a blasting pitching demonstration seldom witnessed in the Navarro County Hardball League, Charles Copeland of the Corsicana Dr. Pppers led his team to a 7 to 1 victory over the Montfort combination in an exhibition game played on the Magnolia diamond Sunday afternoon. Jones of the Montfort team also pitched an outstanding game. He struck out 9 batters but was unable to parallel Copeland's ability to control hits.

GERMANS

among other things, a railway station at Brighton, coast batteries on the Isle of Wight, port facilities and camps at Falmouth Wells and armament plants at Middleborough and Newcastle."

When the fuehrer will give the word for the new war phase, and what it will be, even men usually in the know can not say. But they are confident that whatever happens, Hitler and Italian Premier Mussolini will be in full harmony.

Hitler and Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano conferred secretly for two hours here yesterday and arranged another conference for Wednesday, presumably intended to co-ordinate Rome-Berlin policies for reshaping Europe.

Today Ciano inspected the scenes of German victories in the west which paved the way for the downfall of France.

Official circles were uncommunicative concerning the topics which Hitler and Ciano discussed yesterday in the fuehrer's chancellery but it was believed generally recent events in Southeastern Europe held an important place.

(Reuters, British news agency, quoted a Swiss newspaper correspondent as reporting from Rome that plans for an offensive against England—with Ireland as the first objective—were discussed.)

The German high command reported, meanwhile, that Nazi warplanes had struck new blows at the British fleet and carried out further successful raids on military objectives in England.

Sweden Joins With Germany

STOCKHOLM, July 8.—(AP)—Sweden openly entered a course of close co-operation with Germany today, its aim a "normalized Scandinavia."

Trade—the trade on which Sweden depends for existence—and the safeguarding of the nation's "living space" were the objects sought through multilateral agreements with Germany, with German-dominated Denmark and German-controlled Norway.

These agreements, expected to be completed this week, were practical manifestations of the new Swedish policy indicated by Prime Minister Per Hansson.

DEFENSE

Some lawmakers said a type of selective draft was needed because voluntary enlistments had failed to keep up with increases in the army and navy already approved by congress.

A billion dollar string of munitions plants, chiefly for the manufacture of guns, ammunition and planes, figures prominently in the latest preparedness plans.

On the home defense front, it was learned that governors of the 48 states soon may be invited to a conference at the justice department.

Department officials, disclosed that the meeting, probably Aug. 5 and 6, would take up co-operation among the states on:

General defense activities.

Alien propaganda.

Civil rights, particularly protection against mob violence.

Alien registration, especially education of the foreign-born to their duties under the new law.

Co-ordination between the states and the federal government in defense measures to avoid conflict.

with American authorities over this case."

The spokesman denied any apology had been tendered the American authorities, although it was reported yesterday the gendarmes were released only after apology by their commander to Col. DeWitt Peck, U. S. marine commander in the Shanghai area.

The gendarmes, who were armed, were arrested after they were discovred in the one in violation of the agreement whereby they are not to enter it without consent of military authorities.

Col. Peck reiterated that the leader of the Japanese gendarmes personally apologized to him, whereupon the men were released.

Jap Demands Rejected.

TOKYO, July 8.—(AP)—Britain has rejected Japan's demands for the closure of the route through British Burma to war supplies for the Chinese government. She asserted that such action would be incompatible with Britain's commitments to Burma and India, an authoritative source said tonight.

British Ambassador Sir Robert Leslie Craigie today personally delivered the British reply to Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita.

Sir Robert was reported to have declared that trade between the British crown colony and the Chinese hinterland had been halted and, therefore, there was no foundation for Japan's demands for the stoppage of arms traffic by this route.

A foreign office communique said Arita expressed his government's "deep dissatisfaction" with the British reply and urged Sir Robert to advise London to reconsider. The ambassador agreed to relay this message, the communique said.

The foreign office made no mention of another Japanese "request," that British military units be withdrawn from Shanghai, which Britain has under consideration.

Informed persons believed that further British-Japanese conferences would seek a compromise on the Burma route issue.

A Japanese source said Sir Robert told Arita that this question had "been considered," but that it was "naturally difficult" to prohibit legal trade since Burmese and Indian products were among the goods shipped into China.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Secretary Hull said today he was confident that American and Japanese local officials would deal in a reasonable and practicable way with a dispute over the treatment of 15 Japanese gendarmes arrested by U. S. Marines in the Shanghai defense area.

WILLKIE

Charles L. McNary of Oregon, the vice presidential nominee. They will be guests tonight at an informal dinner to which all Republican members of congress have been invited.

The Republican campaign setup may be completed at conferences tonight, with a decision as to whether one man or a three-member group will direct it.

McNary told reporters he had no plans for Willkie's visit other than to discuss any subjects that the presidential nominee might bring up. McNary said he thought that since Willkie has had little rest since the Philadelphia convention, political conferences ought to be held to a minimum during his visit here.

However, plans were made by other Republican leaders to obtain the nominee's ear before he maps his speaking campaign.

Senator Thomas of Idaho, a member of the resolutions committee which drafted the Republican platform, said he hoped to confer with Willkie about his views on foreign policy and on the reciprocal trade program.

the last session of the legislature.

Sixty-eight-year old James E. Ferguson, campaigning for his wife, Miriam A. Ferguson, is not attempting to make as many talks as in former years. However, he has announced rallies this week at Cleburne and Corsicana.

Governor O'Daniel is expected to say within a few days whether he will make any additional stump speeches or will limit his campaigning to the radio.

Sadler had speeches scheduled today at Terrell, Grand Saline, Mineola, Quitman and Gilmer; Thompson was at Kaufman, Athens, Canton and Mineola; Hines was at Madisonville, Centerville, and Buffalo.

Sadler in East Texas.

TERRELL, July 8.—(AP)—Jerry Sadler, railroad commissioner campaigning for the governorship, carried his preachments against sales and transactions taxes into this and other East Texas towns today, vowing he would fight for a tax on natural resources such as oil, gas and sulphur.

He spoke to a street corner crowd here from a truck wired for sound and bearing the legend: "Tax the Mouths of the Wells Instead of the Mouths of the People."

Sadler decried the transactions tax plan unsuccessfully sponsored by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel as a scheme to saddle the poor with taxes the "rich corporations didn't want to pay."

He exhibited statements from the secretary of state's office which he said showed that a one billion dollar company operating in Texas paid a franchise tax of $10 a year; another capitalized at $50,000,000 paid a franchise fee of $1,500.

His natural resources tax would shift tax burdens to out of state operators, he said, since most of the oil, gas and sulphur are used outside of Texas.

shown a steadfast and a true Americanism.

"Henry L. Stimson and Frank Knox, in accepting these assignments under such conditions at the hands of a president belonging to a party not their own, have shown a similar loyalty to American ideals."

Sheppard mentioned also that Stimson had advocated "the arousal of a national spirit which will grasp the emergency," and has urged enactment of a system of selective compulsory training and service to raise the manpower needed for defense and to bring home to every citizen the gravity of the present situation.

BUND

demanded Connally. "Wasn't the United States good enough for you?"

"I'm a German-American," Kunze replied.

"I don't recognize any such distinction," said the senator.

"Every American is descended from some European stock," the Bund leader continued. "I'm no less an American than anyone else but the blood in my bones makes me a German-American."

"I notice," Connally remarked, "that you put the 'German' first."

Connally asked Kunze at one point "what there is about your organization you're ashamed to have the country know about?"

"Senator," Kunze replied, "the federal bureau of investigation already knows more about the German-American Bund than I do."

Feared Persecution.

In response to a question Kunze said his organization conducted "no military drills of any kind" and received no money from abroad.

When Kunze said the organization maintained no membership list because of fear of "persecution" and "boycott" of members of it became public, Connally remarked:

"I think that if we'd put about a dozen of you in jail, maybe you'd know who the members are."

Asking to inspect Kunze's membership card, Connally noted that the Bund leader's photograph showed him in a uniform with shoulderstraps and an "overseas cap."

"Are any of your members going overseas?" Connally asked.

"Not unless they go as members of the armed forces of the United States," Kunze replied.

Connally inquired why the membership card was printed in German.

"Theres' no legal requirement," Kunze started to reply when Connally interrupted.

"There's no legan requirement," he snapped, "but there's a requirement for an American to be an American and not a German if he lives here."

HULL STAND

Asiatic and American nations—each group in its own sphere—consult and settle territorial problems among themselves, instead of allowing a conquering power to make the decisions alone.

The president mentioned "the complete absence of any intention whatever on the part of the United States to interfere with territorial questions involving adjustment in Europe or Asia."

Taking the specific instance of territories in the western hemisphere which belong to nations opposing Germany, Early gave this as the president's thought:

If Germany laid claim to French, British or Dutch possessions in the Americas, the United States would make no effort to take them. Instead, all the American nations would be asked to decide whether they should be placed under a mandate or held in trust until they could be returned to the present owners.

In the same way, Early said, the United States government believes that all Asiatic countries should confer in the disposition of French Indo-China, and that a similar method should be followed in handling territorial problems of Europe.

TEXAS APPLICATIONS FOR MATTRESSES MAY AGGREGATE 200,000

APPLICATIONS AS OF JUNE 26 REPORTED TO HAVE REACHED 180,281 UNITS

COLLEGE STATION, July 8.—(Spl.)—Preliminary reports from Texas counties indicate that applications for mattress making materials under the department of Agriculture's program for re-during the country's cotton surplus may aggregate 200,000 when all records are finally tabulated in the state office of the A. and M. College Extension Service. June 29 was the final date on which low-income farm families could file applications for cotton and ticking.

One hundred and ninety-seven counties have reported 180,281 applications as of June 26, according to Mildred Horton, vice director and state home demonstration agent of the Extension Service. Already 17,000 bales have been ordered from the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, according to reports filed in the state AAA office, indicating that at least 170,000 families have been certified to participate by county agricultural conservation committees.

Sixty-one counties which have received cotton had made 20,509 mattresses on the same date, Miss Horton said.

Progress of the program in Texas compares favorably with other southern states, a report from Washington reveals. Alabama reports 207,127 applications received and 177,160 of these certified. Arkansas follows Texas in number with 158,613 applications filed, of which 149,513 families have been certified as eligible. Next in line is Mississippi with 110,667 applications. About 100,000 of these are certified families as of June 22, 1940.

Other states participating in the program include Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Kentucky, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland.

HOSPITAL REPORT SHOWS INCREASE IN NUMBER PATIENTS

During the first half of 1940, there were 447 patients admitted to the P. and S. Hospital, including 128 charity cases, the semi-annual report of Paul Moore, secretary-treasurer of the Navarro county hospital board, made to the board Sunday revealed. This is an increase of 23 over the corresponding period in 1939.

Total collections were listed at $10,857.10 while expenses amounted to $13,766.11, including a number of repairs and some new equipment.

Charity hospitalization amounted to $4,849.82 while that of physicians was listed at $9,147.

The deficit for the period was $2,977.89.

During June, the collections were $1,445.66. There were 84 patients admitted, including 26 charity. The charity done by the hospital was $983.54. Expenses were $2,212.34.

The board authorized the advertising for bids for repairs to the basement of the hospital.

THREE MEN AND ONE WOMAN TAKEN FROM FREIGHT TRAIN HERE

County and city officers late Saturday night stopped a through southbound freight train over the Burlington and Rock Island Lines and arrested three men and a woman for Waxahachie officers.

The four, all middle-aged, were wanted by the Ellis county officers in connection with an attack on a negro earlier in the night at Waxahachie when serious knife wounds were received, local officers were advised.

The arrests were made about 11 o'clock Saturday night and the four were surrendered to the Ellis county officers who returned them to Waxahachie.

HEALTH, BEAUTY AND POISE

By VERONICA DENGEL

FENCE WALK FOR POISE!

Walking on fences used to be one of my favorite accomplishments! It's lots of fun, and the expectancy of falling off adds the element of danger that makes it more interesting. Really, practise such as this will help you to improve your balance to a large extent—and good balance is the basis of good carriage.

But if you just won't walk a fence— then choose a straight line the picture are perfect—the parks offer them in any number of locations. At the same time you will be getting sun, fresh air and exercise.

Fence walking imp roves one's balance

Start with a low and rather broad stone wall—so that if you think you are going to fall, all you need do is step down. As you become more adept, pick higher fences—but never, never try to walk a picket fence. That is the height of folly and I have known of several bad accidents from this. Wooden fences such as shown in the picture are perfect—the parks on the floor and practice walking on this. First forward—and then backward; bringing each foot directly in front of the other as you step. This will help you to remember to walk correctly at all times, following one line—never two lines."

Solution of Friday's Puzzle,

FARMERS NOT TO MAKE SAME MISTAKE AGAIN IN DEFENSE PROGRAM

COLLEGE STATION, July 8.—(Spl.)—Farm people are not going to forget the long time pull in their efforts to help out on the national defense program.

In other words, as H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, points out, there will be no recurrence of what happened in World War I, when American farmers broke out 40 million acres of land, much of which should never have gone under the plow, and 'mined' their farms without a thought of preserving fertility.

His reason: In 249 of the 254 counties in Texas, land use committees are developing plans for the wise use of agricultural resources and possible uses of these resources under all possible condition. Similar committees are functioning in nearly all counties in the United States.

The committees are made up of farm men and women, but include as advisory members local representatives of such agencies as the Soil Conservation Service, Farm Security Administration, AAA, Farm Credit Association, and the Extension Service. Thus, long-time items such as soil and water conservation, efficient production, marketing, farm tenancy and others will not be forgotten.

"Because of their knowledge of local problems and conditions these committees are in a better position than anyone else to cope with the present unsettled conditions of world affairs as it affects them," the director said. "These groups will keep alive the American tradition of attaining desired objectives through democratic methods."

GRASSHOPPER THREAT REPORTED FOLLOWING RECENT OVERFLOWS

Serious grasshopper damage threats has developed along creeks and river banks, H. C. Robinson, county agent, states following overflows that have driven the hoppers out of the lowlands. Much migrations of the insects have been reported in several Navarro county communities.

The county agent pointed out that the migrations do not necessarily mean that material damage to crops will result as the insects might tend to drift back to bottom vegetation after the overflows subside, but farmers were urged to keep a sharp outlook where their crops are adjacent to such areas in order to take immediate control steps if the situatiton warrantes. Extensive damage can be done in a very short time if nothing is done to stop them.

Poison bran mash is recommended as the most effective control measure. An ample supply of wheat bran and arsentic poison is on hand for any anticipated needs in this county, Mr. Robinson continued, and is available to farmers of the respective communities who will select a committee that will agree to operate a mixture plant where the poison can be properly prepared and distributed to individual farmers.

Mixing stations have already been set up at Emhouse, Richland, and Dawson. Farmers residing in localities where it is not practical to set up such stations can secure the mash from one of these locations.

CHICAGO, July 8.—(AP)—The expanding movement of newly harvested wheat more than offset rather sensational reports of crop deterioration in the spring wheat belt today as domestic prices fluctuated erratically over a range of about three cents a bushel.

CONSIGNMENT 5100 BLACK BASS PLACED IN CORSICANA LAKE

A consignment of 5100 black bass, each averaging some two and a half inches long, were delivered to Corsicana Monday by representatives of the state fish hatchery near Dallas and placed in Lake Halbert, according to an announcement during the afternoon by Mayor J. S. Murchison.

The shipment was brought in the new type truck placed in service recently by the hatchery which permits each container to carry a greater number of fish and at the same time supplies them with air, insuring their safe delivery. Hatchery officials asserted the bass shipment unloosed Monday would weigh around a pound to a pound and a half by next year.

Mayor Murchison reported the state representatives had promised several additional consignments of fish of different varieties during the next few months.

He also reported water was still running over the spillway at Lake Halbert some half inch deep Monday indicating the city had a capacity supply.

STOCK MARKET WAS WITHOUT APPARENT TREND ON MONDAY

PRICE CHANGES AND DEALINGS WERE LIGHT DURIND THE SESSION

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, July 8.—(AP)—The stock market hunted unsuccessfully for a trend today as traders were unable to uncover any real inspiration in either the domestic or foreign news.

Dealings and price changes were inconsequential throughout and at the close slight gains and losses were fairly well balanced. Transfers for the five hours were in the neighborhood of 250,000 shares, one of the smallest turnovers for a full session in 18 years.

Business hopes remained as the main selling prop, but even a sharp snap-back in this week's steel mill operations—the upturn was estimated at 12.2 points against the Fourth of July week's letdown of 12.3 points—was virtually ignored by shares in the metal group.

Offsetting bullish arguments, brokers said, were questions concerning a possible imminent Hitler smash at England; what will happen at the national democratic convention next week, and the kind of excess profits tax law which may be passed by congress in the near future.

Stocks up at one time or another were United Aircraft, Southern Railway, Union Pacific, Western Union, Phelps Dodge, Du Pont, Square D, Union Carbide and American Can.

CONFERENCE FIVE METHODIST CHURCHES PLANNED FOR JULY 22

The regular monthly meeting of the board of stewards tonight at 8 o'clock; meeting of the Boy Scouts Monday and Tuesday nights; church night services Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, and choir rehearsal Thursday night are the chief activities at the First Methodist church this week.

At the morning church hour the regular monthly Holy Communion service was observed and the monthly offering for the poor was made. Dr. P. E. Riley, the pastor, brought the brief communion sermon and administered the communion, which was observed by a large congregation.

At the night church hour, the pastor preached from the subject, "The Supreme Alternative," and the choir brought special music. The pastor announced that on Monday night, July 22, there would be a joint meeting of five churches at which time the third quarterly conference would be held at First Church. The churches to participate in this meeting will be First Church, North Corsicana, Eleventh Avenue, Central of Corsicana, and the church at Rice.

There was 304 at Sunday school an increase over last Sunday and last year; there were 37 men present in the Brotherhood Bible class to hear W. T. Hipps teach the class; a letter of thanks from one of the preachers in the Corsicana district that the class sent to the pastors' school in Georgetown, was read.

Liston Tatum, Jr., gave piano numbers in the adult department. Under the leadership of Miss Rosalie Simmons there was a special music program given in the young adult department. Winkie Pierce had charge of the intermediate department. T. L. Carlisle directed the program in the young people's department; Mary Ellen Sutton was the leader in the high school department, and Margaret Clowe was the leader in the young people's evening service.

nominally to him, while 1 1-2 are unpledged.

"Of course," McCormack said, "the delegation is for Jim Farley if the president is not a candidate."

May Rock Along.

Political analysts suggested that since Mr. Roosevelt had let the third term movement go along until a week before the convention without lifting a finger either to check or increase its momentum he would be unlikely to turn down renomination.

Lending emphasis to predictions of some democratic leaders that the convention would draft the chief executive was the fact that 773 1-2 votes were pledged or semi-pledged to Mr. Roosevelt with only the Canal Zone delegation to be heard from. Necessary to nominate: 548 votes.

Farley, the national democratic chairman, found out what the president proposes to do when the two laid their political cards on the desk in Mr. Roosevelt's library at Hyde Park, N. Y., yesterday.

"I had a very satisfactory talk with the president," Farley said afterward, "and I have full knowledge of his thoughts and what he has in mind."

But any announcement on the third term, or any discussion of the time or place for the announcement, must come from the president, he asserted."

He sidestepped nimbly every trap set for him by reporters who sought some hint of what Mr. Roosevelt had told him.

"I'll discuss any future plans I may have with regard to party activities at the Chicago convention," he said.

Farley has 38 1-2 convention delegates pledged to him. Farley has been listed frequently as a third term opponent.

He said he had discussed with "the boss" the kind and size of platform he hoped the convention would adopt, adding:

"Every effort will be made to conduct a dignified convention with no by-plays or frivolities of any character—a convention that will be free from all criticism.

rearmed and joined the axis in attacks on Gibraltar.

Announcing over the week end demobilization of French naval forces at Alexandria, Egypt, the British said they had sunk two Italian supply ships, forced two large transports aground, left other ships in difficulties, and sank either an Italian destroyer or submarine. A British submarine off Norway was reported to have torpedoed five German supply ships.

The Germans reported two British destroyers were bombed so heavily in the North Sea that they were total losses and that a British cruiser was damaged.

The British said that aerial minelaying in the Baltic and elsewhere had robbed German ships of any safe passages.

Bloodshed came to the western hemisphere Sunday in Mexico's presidential election. One of the candidates places the casualties of upwards of 100 killed and thousands injured; other estimates placed the dead at about 50.

The ballots were not to be counted until Thursday, and the government may decided not to release the results until congress meets in September. Both generals, Manuel Avila Camacho, the administration candidate, and Juan Andreu Almazan, his opponent, claimed victory.

Milk Routes In Navarro County Hold Production

Production on Navarro county milk routes has been holding a high average in spite of unfavorable conditions generally in the past several days, according to officials of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the project.

For several weeks the daily average had been in the vicinity of 8,000 pounds but early last week dropped to around 6,100 pounds as a result of heavy rains and inability of route drivers to reach their customers because of high waters. Saturday's total was reported above the 7,000 pound mark, and officials expressed the belief the volume would return to normal within a few days.

The routes centering around Corsicana have approximately 125 patrons, officials said, and about 400 better than average cows have been distributed since the program was initiated a few months ago. With the price of butter fat hovering around thirty cents per pound, it was estimated the routes were bringing in excess of $3,000 per month to the patrons.

Officials said distribution of new cows had been completed for the spring period but plans are underway to bring in more tested animals in the fall if the old or new patrons desire them.

CANDIDATES LIST SPEAKING DATES FOR 7 PLACES

Seven speaking dates are on this week's schedule for the county office seekers, as follows:

Monday Night—Cryer Creek.
Tuesday Night—Pursley.
Wednesday—Long Prairie picnic.
Wednesday Night—Black Hills.
Thursday Night—Rice.
Friday Night—Richland.
Saturday Night—Powell.

Large crowds attended several of the speakings last week, and apparently the electorate is taking more interest in the various races than was shown earlier in the campaign when considerable discussion was heard of the lack of interest.

Two weeks remain after the present week is concluded. Plans are being made by officials of the Navarro county Democratic executive committee for the holding of the first primary election, July 27.

REGISTRATION AND FINGERPRINTING OF ALIENS OF NATION

GOVERNMENT SEEKS ATTITUDES FOREIGN RESIDENTS TOWARD UNITED STATES

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—(AP)—The task of directing the registration and fingerprinting of the nation's aliens rested today with a 41-year old Philadelphia attorney who promised there would be nothing "sentimental about this job."

"We're going to find out those aliens who not only have failed to become naturalized but have beliefs alien to everything we stand for in this country as well," said Earl G. Harrison following his appointment yesterday to administer the new federal law.

Harrison, a square-jawed six-footer, described by Solicitor General Francis Biddle as a "Roosevelt Republican," plans an extensive educational program through foreign language newspapers, the radio and volunteer groups to prepare aliens for registration, beginning Sept. 1.

To Seek Alien Attitudes.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(AP)—A thoroughgoing effort by the government to discover the fundamental attitudes of resident aliens toward the United States was indicated today with the disclosure that immigration officials may draft tomorrow a set of questions to be asked for foreigners.

Under a law signed by President Roosevelt a week ago the nation's 3,600,000 aliens must register and be fingerprinted during a four months' period beginning Sept. 1.

Questions which must be answered under oath will furnish basic information such as the date and place of entry of the alien into this country, the activities in which he has been, and intends to be engaged, the length of his stay here and his criminal record, if any.

One of the questions may be designed to disclose what organizations the aliens have been affiliated with. This has not been finally determined, however.

What About Owl Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(AP)—Some of the policemen at the capitol are wondering what to do about congressmen who may want to get into the building after hours.

Precautions taken to protect the capitol from sabotage since the European war began have been intensified this week.

Starting next Tuesday, every employe who enters the building between 4:30 p. m. and 9 a. m. must have an identification card. Thus far, however, congressmen have not been classified.

Building Permits.

Two building permits were issued this week at the city engineer's office, amounting to $1,825. This brought thetotal for the year to $107,713. The permits were:

Memorial Baptist church, 1601 West Thirteenth avenue, $1,800.

James Davis, 620 East First avenue, stand, $25.

NEW GOVERNMENT RUMANIA INDICATED BY COURSE EVENTS

COMPLETE IRON GUARD REGIME EXPECTED TAKE PLACE PRO-NAZI BODY

BUCHAREST, July 8.—(AP)—The collapse of Premier Ion Gigurtu's five-day-old pro-German cabinet appeared possible late today following the resignation of four iron guard members.

Iron guardists said the ministers resigned because the party wishes to have a cabinet composed solely on the Iron guard.

Gigurtu either may fill the vacant posts with other right extremists or, more likely, himself resign, leaving the way open for an iron guard government.

BUCHAREST, July 8.—(AP)—The possibility Premier Ion Gigurtu's new pro-German anti-Semetic government soon might be replaced by a 100 per cent nationalist Iron Guard regime was foreseen today in informed quarters.

The way was believed open by an "understanding" the Iron Guard—Rumanian Nazis—was reported to have reached with Juliu Mantu, leader of the powerful peasant party.

Circles close to the Guard's leadership said that if "a real Iron Guard government is set up" the party could count on the support of Maniu.

Some Iron Guardists frankly described the present regime as "an interim government."

The program on which both the Iron Guard and Maniu were said to have agreed was described as follows:

1. Division of the Jewish population into categories so restrictions could be introduced "without disrupting Rumania's economic life."

2. Close co-operation with Germany.

3. Betterment of relations with Soviet Russia.

REFUGEE CHILDREN FROM ENGLAND ARE REACHING NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 8.—(AP)—Three hundred and fifty British refugee children arrived unexpectedly on the British liner Samaria today—18 hours after the first contingent of 71 reached New York on the Scythia—as volunteer workers speeded up a nation-wide child refugee aid compaign.

Most of the newcomers were with parents or guardians and most had residences arranged. They ranged from babies to 'teen age, the average being about 8. Most of them had experienced air raid alarms but none was found who had been in an actual bombing.

The Samaria left Liverpool, with about 800 passengers, June 30, only 30 miles ahead of the Arandora Star, the British internment ship which was torpedoed. A destroyer and a seaplane escorting the Samaria out to sea wheeled unexpectedly away to go to the aid of the Arandora Star.

FARM LEADERS WANT AGRICULTURE PLANK FOR PRICE CONTROL

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Administration farm leaders indicated today they would ask the Democratic national convention to adopt an agricultural plank broad enough to cover governmental fixing of farm prices if economic developments should interfere with present crop programs.

Such a plank would be in sharp issue with the Republican platform. The latter favored continuing all present farm subsidy programs, with governmental crop control features removed.

Aides said that Secretary Wallace would appear before the Democratic platform committee at Chicago to ask party endorsement of present agricultural policies.

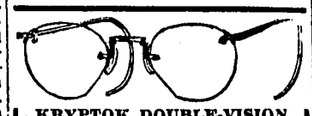

While Wallace often has expressed opposition to governmental price-fixing, associates said developments arising grom the European war had convinced him that the government should be in a position to adopt rigid price controls if necessary to prevent collapse in markets.

Wallace turned to such a device when wheat prices recently tumbled more than 30 cents a bushel. He asked the grain markets to peg prices until European war factors causing the break subsided.

With American farmers confronted by dwindling foreign markets and accumulating surpluses, the secretary is expected to ask the Democrats to pledge greater efforts to increase consumption among the nation' needy.

Corporation Court.

One charge of theft, two of disturbing the peace, one of operating an automobile with defective lights and no brakes, one of blocking an alley, three of double parking, and one of vagrancy, brought offenders into the Corsicana corporation court Monday morning as the result of arrests over the week end by city officers.

BATHING CUSTOMS VARY WIDELY OVER WORLD; UNITED STATES HAS 95 PERCENT SUPPLY BATHTUBS

By WILLIS YOUNG.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 8.—(AP)—Among the strange things still differentiating people in this modern world are the baths they take, how many and just how.

A study of bathing customs, made for the American Medical Association's health magazine, Hygeia, shows that the implements of the bath in various lands include such odd things as sand, snow, birch twigs — and rented water.

One reason for contrasts with the United States, it said, is that this country owns 95 per cent of the world's bathtubs.

In London, a survey one summer showed 100,000 American visitors in town—and only 4,000 hotel rooms with baths. In Germany bathtubs often have corrugated bottoms.

The "C" on faucets in Italy stands for "caldo"—which in Italian means hot! The usual result, therefore, of turning on a faucet is painful, or at least surprising.

In Paris, it was alleged, only 25 per cent of the population has a private bath in the home. From statistics on their use it was estimated unofficially (and without confirmation) that Parisians average one tub bath every four months.

A bathtub costs more than a grand piano in Russia. Soap brings $3.50 a cake—and try to find one.

At Karaganda, Russia (50,000 population), the bath house has one scrub brush and a foreign bather must deposit his passport—to insure return of the brush.

Well known are the Japanese public baths, with tanks which accommodate a dozen or more people, water heated to 120 degrees—and women attendants who insist on rubbing every bather's back.

LOCHNER DECLARES AXIS EXPECTING NO AID FROM FRANCE

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

BERLIN, July 8.—(AP)—If anybody thinks the Rome-Berlin axis powers are counting on France's assistance in ensuing phases of the European war they are mistaken, sources in the know declared early tonight.

Germany and Italy, they said, can settle their scores unaided and Adolf Hitler's permission to the French fleet to fight off the British was merely an act of chivalry, not a gesture of invitation to come into the fray.

As if to underscore this aloofness from France, Robert Ley, leader of the German labor front and director of the Nazi party's political organization, wrote in the Berlin newspaper Der Angriff that France, as an aging decrepit, must definitely yield European continental hegemony to youthful, virile Germany.

"France now and for all time must recognize Germany's leadership in Europe," Ley contended. "That is the meaning of our victory."

Dienst Aus Deutschland, news service with close official connections, also intimated that she yet must pay in full for a "policy which, despite repeated offers for timely reorientation, brought France into her present position."

Seek Federal Aid For Flood Victims

AUSTIN, July 8.—(AP)—An emergency conference Wednesday in Austin on obtaining federal aid for agricultural victims of Texas floods was called today by Bailey B. Ragsdale, chairman of the Texas Dirt Farmers conference.

Ragsdale said the conference would receive a report from H. H. Williamson of Texas A. and M. college's extension service on the amount of flood damage estimated by county agents in stricken areas where quantities of livestock, poultry and crops were lost.

"It has been proposed," the chairman said, "that the conference sponsor a special train to Washington to present facts to federal officials in hopes of gaining aid to remove dangerous silt and debris and straighten the channels of the Colorado, Brazos and Trinity rivers."

To My Friends and Voters of Navarro County

As many of you know I have been hurt and can't meet my friends as I would like to do. In this campaign, to my friends who have known my son, T. P. (Perry) McGee, know what a difficulty he has at earning his and family's way. He only has one eye and his vision is very poor from that. We have never before found a doctor who could and would perform an operation on his eyes. You all know I am not working. Now to help him get this operation and if my friends and voters of Navarro county would be kind enough to help him to office of County Treasurer he and I will ever be thankful.

U. S. INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION SWUNG UPWARD MAY, JUNE

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Industrial production swung sharply upward during May and the first half of June, the federal reserve board reported today.

Its seasonally adjusted index rose three points to 105 in May, due chiefly to increased activity of steel and woolen mills.

Prices did not follow the production trend, however, fluctuating near the low levels reached after a sharp decline in mid-May. Consumer purchasing of commodities was about the same as earlier in the year, the board said.

The report on industrial production followed a statement by Secretary Hopkins yesterday that business improvement had broadened and showed signs of strengthening in June as a result of the vast defense program.

BRITAIN CALLS HOME ITS YOUNG ACTORS IN HOLLYWOOD DISTRICT

HOLLYWOOD, July 8.—(AP)—Great Britain has called home its motion picture actors between the ages of 18 and 31. Other British subjects in the film colony temporarily will aid their homeland in other ways.

Handsome Richard Greene said he would go to England as soon as possible. Like most of the other British actors here, Greene volunteered his services several months ago but was instructed to remain in Hollywood until further notice.

Past 31 in age are such figures as Laurence Oliver, Cary Grant, Ray Milland, Errol Flynn, Louis Hayward, Brian Aherne and Herbert Marshall.

Grant is donating $150,000, his salary from his new film, "Philadelphia Story," to British war charity. Charles Laughton for some time has earmarked all of his radio earnings for war relief and Red Cross. Ronald Colman and others have made similar gifts.

No Action Taken On Proposed Purchase Of $29,000 in Bonds

Another discussion of the proposed purchase of bonds with $29,000 of the Navarro county permanent school fund was held by the commissioners' court Monday morning, but action was deferred pending further investigation of assets of certain districts from which bonds have been offered.

Several contracts executed at past sessions were authorized to be included in the minutes of the court.

The court will be in session as a board of equalization, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

PETAIN GOVERNMENT WILL MAKE WAY FOR NEW FRENCH REGIME

PETAIN EXPECTED TO BE TITULAR HEAD WITH THREE MEN AS LEADERS

GENEVA, July 8.—(AP)—The censored press of unoccupied France carried reports today that Marshall Henri Philippe Petain's government was "only tansitory" and would make way for a new regime with Petain as "chief of state" like Generalissimo Francisco Franco in Spain.

A dispatch from Vichy to let Peit Daughinois of Grenoble forecast the resignation of French President Albert LeBrun and his replacement by Petain who, it said, would "only accept the title of executive power."

A triumvirate of former Premier Pierre Laval, General Maxime Weygand and Adrien Marque,t, former Minister of Labor and Mayor of Bordeax, would dominate the government under Petain's titular direction, this report said.

Petain's present ministry, it added, "seems to be making a last concession to dying rights" by an elaborate legislative procedure carried out by a picked group of senators and deputies at Vichy.

These plans, the writer emphasized are only forecasts but the fact that they were permitted to appear in the strictly controlled press indicated that they may be based on known plans of the Vichy leaders.

Unamerican Inquiry Resumed At Austin

AUSTIN, July 8.—(AP)—Congressman Martin Dies of Orange, chairman of a committee of the national house of representatives investigating unamerican activities, resumed the inquiry here today behind closed doors.

Although the names of witnesses or the line of questioning were not announced, it was generally understood that foreign consular and foreign-language newspaper operations were subjects slated for attention.

Meanwhile, Dies, a democrat, said in a statement that he was not seeking and did not want his party nomination for vice president.

No Sweeping Changes Planned Now By FCC

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—Chairman James L. Fly said today the Communications Commission had no plans to assume "sweeping control" over broadcasting activities in event of a national emergency.

In response to questions at a press conference, Fly asserted "our government isn't qualified to take over broadcasting."

"Of course," he added, "if we should ever get into war," there will be some particular things the government would have to do but there would be nothing done of a sweeping character affecting the broadcasting industry."

FRANCE APPARENTLY COMPLETING BREAK WITH FORMER ALLY

LONDON, July 8.—(AP)—The French charge d'affaires informed the British foreign office today that the French embassy in London was withdrawing to France.

This, apparently, indicated fulfillment of the French decision to break off diplomatic relations with Great Britain although it was considered unlikely that the French embassy would leave immediately.

The communication delivered by the French charge, an authoritative diplomatic source said, called for an answer and the British government "will certainly reply to it."

The diplomatic correspondent for Reuters, British news agency earlier had said that the French embassy in London still had not been advised by the French government that diplomatic relations with Britain had been severed.

The correspondent pointed out that French Foreign Minister Paul Baudouin announced the severance last Thursday night, and commented:

"It is difficult to understand this delay in informing the embassy in London. Though there may be a delay in telegraphic communication, this does not amount on the average to more than 24 hours."
